CONSTITUTION VIOLATED SAYS JUDGE COUGHLIN

Mrs. Bessie Jarrel, proprietor of the Dugout restaurant in Grass Valley, is not to be denied her constitutional rights, even though the Grass Valley city council and police department, from all indications, would like nothing better than to give her, what is known in haut ton circles as, a "going away party,"

But Judge Miles D. Coughlin, Nevada City municipal judge, called to sit in the hearing of whether or not Mrs. Jarrel's restaurant should be closed for lack of a city license, grants her a new trial for the reason that her constitutional rights have, to put it mildly, been overlooked in preceeding court actions.

There are features of Judge Coughlin's order granting a new trial to Mrs. Jarrel which cannot fail to interest thoughtful persons concerned with liberties and rights which the Constitution guarantees to citizens of the United States. His order follows in full:

Under the complaint in this case the defendant was charged with violation of Section 13, of Ordinance 38 of the City of Grass Valley, and accused of engaging in the restaurant business without having procured a license so to do, to which she pleaded not guilty. Trial was had on August 14, 1934 and a jury rendered a verdict that the defendant was guilty as charged. On August 14, defendant moved for Arrest of Judgment which has been denied. On August 16, defendant made a Motion for a New Trial generally on all grounds under Sections 1450 and 1451 of the Penal Code and particularly on the ground that the verdict is contrary to law and evidence, and upon the further ground that the provisions of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States have been violated as disclosed by the evidence. This motion was argued and submitted.

An examination of the entire Ordinance No. 38, which requires all persons engaged in business in Grass Valley to procure a license so to do, discloses no discretion vested in any person to refuse a license. It provides that it shall be unlawful to conduct certain lines of business without first procuring a license, and further provides that it shall be the "duty" of the City Clerk to prepare and issue a license for every person "liable" therefor, and provides the amount of license fees for different lines of business endeavors.

The fees required to be paid under the ordinance are in the nature of a license tax for revenue. There are no provisions in the ordinance which indicate that it is a regulatory license under the police power of the city (Seee In Re Johnson, 47 C. A. 465).

John Harris, the witness for the prosecution, who is the Mayor of the City of Grass Valley, testified that the defendant on at least two occasions after July 1, 1934, visited the City Hall and requested a license and tendered the amount due for a license, and that he, the Mayor, had told the defendant the the City Council had decided to refuse to issue a business license to her, and that the City Clerk had been instructed by the Council not to issue a license to defendant.

While no case has been found which has heretofore covered the criminal prosecution of a person refused a license under similar conditions as in the present case, there are cases which hold that a judgment of mandate will be entered directing the issuance of a license where the necessary conditions precedent are performed by the applicant for license, and by analogy can be considered and applied to the present action. In a case of this kind it was said:

"The ordinances of the City of San Bernardino, as they now stand, entitles every man who complies with their provisions to a retail liquor license, and this respondent complied with these provisions. Trustees of cities have no power except that given them by express provisions of law, and we find no power in any of these ordinances vesting in them discre-

George G. Thomas, one of the owners of the Eagle Bird mine, near Washington, is in Nevada City. He is from Hillside, Arizona, and is here visiting the mine.

THIS BURRO STORY MAY BE A TRUE ONE

Briz Putnam, leaser of the famous Union No. 9 of Manhattan is in Nevada City looking for a chance to make money mining. He did not bring a famous burro known as "Miss Jennie" down to this country with him, and from what Al. Kelliher says about the habits of this disreputable spinister burro, it is, perhaps, just as well.

Time was when Briz and two fellow prospectors were camped in a big tent in the suburbs of Manhattan. Briz, returning late from a card party on a snowy evening, found Miss Jennie crouched in the door of the home tent munching away in the camp's grub box while Briz' two companions peacefully slept. Nothing was visible of Miss Jennie except her extreme southern promentory, so Briz gave that a vigorous kick, expecting the burro to back out suddenly and decamp. Instead, the guilty beast gave a plung forward, thrust her head through the small window in the back of the tent, and set off at a lively pace down Manhattan's main street, wearing the tent like a bridal veil and train. Briz' two unfortunate companions rudely aroused from sleep and left in in the open to face the snow storm, refused to hear his explanations of what had happened, and chased him down the street in the wake of the burro.

CAR DOOR OPENS AND MAN GETS BAD FALL

R. C. Martens, who resides west of Nevada City, was in town Friday from his ranch. He is recovering from a badly fractured arm. While on a business trip he was catapulted from a car near Roseville, when the door flew open. Mr. Martens received a number of severe bruises besides the badly crushed forearm. Dr. A. H. Tickell is treating him.

CLOTHES ARE NEEDED FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

The Red Cross of Nevada City is soliciting clothes for school children of the elementary grades. The principal demand at present is for shoes, especially for boys.

Anyone having clothes or shoes may leave them with Mrs. R. Goyne at the Miners Foundry and they will be placed in the Red Cross store room which is nearby.

Four Hundred CCC Boys Fighting Fires

A forest fire which started in the Sierraville district Sunday is now under control after burning over 600 acres of "burned over" land. Ranger F. A. Land had 110 men fighting the fire and it is expected that most of these men will be brought in this evening. The land was logged over last year. From all indications, the fire was caused by a careless smoker.

The big fire which burned over about 1100 acres at the head of the American river, in rough and mountainous country, is practically out. A considerable area of large timber was destroyed in this fire. Today there were 400 CCC men and Tahoe Forest Service men on the fire lines.

State Fire Ranger Will Sharp made an inspection of the burned district near Piedmont camp of the Camp Fire Girls on Rock Creek this forenoon. He reports everything as in fine shape. About 10 acres were burned over near the Gipysy or overnight camp of the girls. Apparently the fire was of incendiary origin as traces were found of two spots that were evidently set.

Mr. Sharp also sent men to the Greenhorn fire east of Nevada City this morning and they returned as the fire was out, the last of the men on spot fires coming in early this morning. This fire was mostly a ground fire burning over about 560 acres and burning only a few large pine trees.

FIRE DESTROYS 3 CARS AND GARAGE

A fire of unknown origen this morning practically destroyed the garage and three cars back of the mortuary of Coroner A. M. Holmes on Sacramento street. The fire was discovered about 6 o'clock. The fire department found the fire had gained much headway on arriving but they were able to extinquish it in a very few minutes.

The Studebaker hearse, the car used for preliminary conveyance of the dead, and a Willis Knight car belonging to Lee Day, resident attendant, were all practically a total loss.

The damage is covered largely by insurance.

FIFTY TWO ATTEND LAKE TAHOE SERVICE

Fifty two members of Trinity and Emanuel Episcopal churches of Nevada City and Grass Valley respectively yesterday attended church at Lake Tahoe and heard Bishop Porter preach on a text from the Book of Amos: "Prepare to Meet Thy God." Fifteen members of the combined choirs of the two local churches were present and they presented three special features during the service: An anthem by the full choir, a quartet by male singers, and a solo by Mrs. Ray Packwood. Following a picnic luncheon, all were invited to tea on the grounds of the Bishop's cottage.

NEWMONT BUYS SULTANA GROUP

The later part of last week the Newmont Mining Company completed the purchase of the Sultana group of claims, which lie east of the Empire mine, east of Grass Valley, which the company owns. These claims will be worked through the Preston Hill property.

William C. Jeffrey, superintendent of the Pennsylvania mine, of the Newmont group, was sent to the property this morning to start the reopening. About eight men will be employed. Mr. Jeffrey, who has had years of mining experience, was ready for his vacation today, but was still more pleased to start work on the newly purchased mine, as he realized it meant more men to be given employment, and the development of another property.

NEVADA COUNTY RODEO SUNDAY AT PEARDALE

Arrangements are completed for the seventh annual Nevada County Rodeo, scheduled for Sunday, August 26th., at Peardale, nine miles from Grass Valley on the Colfax highway. The committeemen have arranged an extensive program.

The famous Barnsby herd of bronchos, special roping events, and, for the first time in many years, a program of bulldogging of longhorn steers will be presented.

Sunday's events will be preceded by a parade in Grass Valley on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Peardale program will begin at 10 o'clock Sunday with a baseball game between teams of the Junior Legionnaires of Grass Valley.

A barbecue lunch will be served at noon by the home department of the Peardale Farm Center. The rodeo events will begin at 2 o'clock in the afternoon with bronco riding, roping, fancy riding, races, steer riding and bulldogging.

A move has been made to obtain the cooperation of the Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce and the Grass Valley Miners Baseball Club with Nevada County Rodeo Association next year, to stage a benefit rodeo to finance the fencing of the Watt Park baseball field. It is planned to hold the rodeos of the future at Watt Park, south of the Grass Valley city limits, if the project obtains the support of the Grass Valley organizations.

The committeemen in charge of the rodeo are: John Bieber, Walter Parsons, Earl Covey, Louis Le Due, Carl Tobiassen and Eben Smart.

Mr. and Mrs. Bev. Barron returned a few days ago from a summer's vacation. Mr. Barron will resume his position in the Nevada City high school Monday, August 27. They visited for a time with Mrs. Barron's relatives in Orland, later going to camp in the high Sierras over the Sonora Pass. They caught a large number of fine trout in the Stanislaus river, and had an enjoyable summer.

The home of Mrs. George Brown, Sr., of Graniteville, burned to the ground at an early hour this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Farmer Are Breakfast Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farmer entertained at a breakfast Sunday at their home, Woodcrest on Robinson Heights, southeast of Nevada City. The breakfast was served on the terrace under the pines with a background of pink petunias against the terrace and walls.

Those to enjoy the breakfast were Attorney and Mrs. Harry E. McKee, Mrs. Otto E. Schiffner, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farmer.

Miss Brotnov and Elmer Stevens wed

With the announcement of her marriage, Miss Margaret Brotnov, Nevada City high school teacher, this morning presented her resignation to the board of school directors. Miss Brotnov and Elmer Stevens, teacher in the Grass Valley high school, were married some two weeks ago. Miss Brotnov was a teacher of languages and had made hundreds of friends in school and out, who wish her great happiness.

Pacific Play Presented at Church

At the Methodist church Sunday night a short play entitled "The portrait" and the portrait of a soldier boy was given. The play centered who came to life and talked of the useflessness of war, and the need of more peaceful demonstrations to take the place of militant parades. It was a very forceful play and very well acted, so that the theme was clearly understood and appreciated by all of the many in attendance at the church. The actors were: Ben Sweeney, Carl Murchie, Don Jones, Audrey Davis, Helen Arbogast, and Margaret Phariss. Elma Eden and Flossie Angoxe were stage managers. Each one played his part remarkably well.

The play has been previously given at the Epworth League Institute in Humboldt county, where it had been equally well received. The playing of taps, by an unseen bugler, was the concluding note of the program.

Miss Roxanne Boggs Is Hostess to Party

Miss Roxanne Boggs was hostess to a pleasant gathering of young people at the apartment of her parents on Main street Friday evening. Card games were played as well as charades. Those present were: Dick Bennett, Arthur Elliott, Addison Janes, Harley Leete, Jr., Dick Stevens, Lou McCraney, Betsy Bennett, Betty Kornmayor, Ruth Curnow, Margaret Gibbs, and Roxanne Boggs.

Ginger ale and grape punch were served. All had a very pleasant time.

Newly Wedded Couple To Make Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy DeLaney arrived Friday from a five week's stay in Los Angeles, where Mr. DeLaney closed up all his business affairs, and they have returned here to reside permanently.

As announced in the Nugget recently, Mr. DeLaney, Los Angeles lawyer, married Mrs. Andrews, and they have decided to make Nevada City their home. He will engage in mining. They have rented the Edgar E. Barker home and will move there today.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS TO REGISTER AUG. 23, 24

Principal H. E. Kjorlie, of the high school, announces that all high school students, entrants as well as those attending last year, must register Thursday and Friday, August 23 and 24, at the high school. The office will be open from 2 to 5 in the afternoon and from 7:30 to 9 in the evening. The principal states that after Friday no conflicts in the study periods will be adjusted.

HOPELESS VICTIM OF LINGERING ILL SHOOTS SELF

Suffering from an incurable malady, L. F. Johnson, who has been a resident of Nevada City for about two years, this morning committed suicide by shooting himself. Johnson was an uncle of Leonard Johnson engaged in the auto repairing business of this city. He was about 65 years of age. Funeral arrangements will be made by Holmes Funeral home.

MAN FOUND DEAD

Sam Hendershot, supposed to be a miner, was found dead this morning at a place called Elk's Club on the You Bet road. Apparently he had been dead for sometime. It is not yet determined whether or not death was due to natural causes. Coroner A. M. Holmes took charge of the remains.

EPWORTH LEAGUE HOLDS DOWNIEVILLE MEETING

There is an Epworth League Conference in Downieville during the whole of this week. A group of Nevada City people plan to attend the conference Wednesday, and members of the Epworth League from Nevada City will put on their play, "The Portrait." They will leave Nevada City at five o'clock Wednesday morning, and will not return until late that night. Those who plan to go with Mr. and Mrs. Buckner to Downieville are: Ben Sweeney, Carl Murchie, Don Jones, Audrey Davis, Helen Arbogast, and Margaret Phariss.

These people have met with pronounced success in the past, giving their play at the Epworth Institute at Humboldt, and last Sunday night at the Methodist church.

HILLS FLAT AND GRASS VALLEY TO VOTE SEPT. 25

September 25th has been named as the date for the holding of an election to determine if the Hills Flat section, east of the city limits, shall be annexed to the municipality.

A resolution stating that 25 per cent of the residents of Hills Flat desire to incorporate into the City of Grass Valley, was read at a meeting of the Grass Valley council Tuesday evening.

The resolution follows a petition which was circulated recently in the Hills Flat section as a means of solving the sewage disposal problem in the area.

The plans for Grass Valley's new $15,000 city hall, submitted by Charles F. Dean, a Sacramento contractor, were approved and adopted by the council. Bids for the construction of the new building will be advertised within the next few days and will be accepted by the city clerk up to and including September 7.

MR. AND MRS. FIGURSKI BUY CHATFIELD HOME

Mr. and Mrs. John Figurski have purchased a home on Nivens Lane from Mr. and Mrs. Solon Chatfield. Mr. and Mrs. Figurski are from New York City and moved to Los Angeles for the health of their little son, George, later moving to Nevada City where he is improving. They came here about a year ago.

GOLD FLAT SCHOOL TO OPEN NEXT MONDAY

Gold Flat school will open for the fall term on Monday, August 27. Alice Harry and O. B. Lake will be the teachers for the coming term.

MANY PASS LIFE SAVING TESTS AT SWIMMING POOL

Addison Janes, swimming pool manager, has announced the list of those who have successfully passed the requirements for Junior and Senior life saving. The requirements of senior life saving are made very exacting, so that the wearers of the badge are completely prepared to save life in emergency. Those who successfully passed the tests are capable of rescuing drowning persons, and are able to apply artificial respiration. A list of those to whom Janes gave the life saving tests and who passed: Dick Stevens, Marlin Young, Albert Pratti, Ray Wilde, Fan Robbins, Betty Kornmayor, Arthur Elliott, Vernon Sandow, Norman Chatfield.

The requirements of junior life saving are not so hard, and serve to lead up to, and create an interest in senior life saving. Thos who passed the junior life saving test are: Jackson Englebright, Lacy Jones, Roxanne Boggs, Bill Sharpe, Bob Graham, Bud Worthley, Carl Kopp, Herschel Lotz, Joe Widoff, Elton Tobiassen, Carl Tobiassen, Albert Ponticelli, Melvin Clark, Don Thomas, Betsy Bennett, Ruth Curnow, Lou McCraney.

Those who are in the beginners tests, from which a button is given are as follows: Dorothy Roberts, Harry Roberts, Betty Jean Dickson, Elta Hanifer, Betty Lou Krough, Barbara Moore, Frank Roberts, Lillian Williams, Robert Jyne, Bob Still, Tom Ashton, and Silvia Ronning.

Janes reports that he is forming beginners and intermediate swimming classes to be reorganized with classes according to ability. Advanced swimming is to be started, and the correct form of the Australian crawl will be taught. Sundays, however, no classes will be taught, but the day will be devoted to games and contests instead.

WELL KNOWN GRASS VALLEY MAN SUMMONED

C. C. Skewes, aged 79 years, of Grass Valley, passed away at 10:30 o'clock Sunday forenoon after a short illness. His death comes as a great shock to his friends who are county-wide as Mr. Skewes was superintendent of the Nevada County Traction Company for years, or until it shut down, when he retired.

Mr. Skewes suffered the loss of a leg several years ago. He bore his suffering with great fortitude. He had resided in Grass Valley for 33 years.

He leaves to mourn his passing, a devoted wife, Mrs. Mary Skewes, two sons, Charles Skewes, of Grass Valley, E. G. Skewes, of San Jose, a sister, Mrs. S. S. Bisell, of New Jersey, several cousins and five grandchildren.

Burial will take place Tuesday at 10 o'clock from his home on West Main street in Grass Valley. Jefford and Son have charge of funeral arrangements.

MANY GOLFERS ATTEND HOME COMING TOURNEY

The home coming tournament staged yesterday by the Nevada County Golf Association, proved to be a great success. More than a hundred golfers ad their families attended the affair and all voted it one of the most pleasant of all big parties that have been arranged there.

The clam stew, donated by District Attorney W. E. Wright and Coroner A. M. Holmes was excellent. Fully fifty per cent of the golfers called for a second helping. Cards were greatly enjoyed by those who found the day too warm for golf. A continuous procession of golfers made the runds of the greens.

SON IS BORN

A son was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Bolton, owners of the Racket Store in Nevada City. The new arrival is to be called Thomas Edward, naming him after his father and grandfather, Thomas Oliver. Mother and son are getting along nicely at the Nevada City Sanitarium.

IF HITLER RULED US

To get a real idea of what life under German Facism is like, use your imagination and transplant the whole business to American soil.

Pretend we are laboring under Naziism and that the things that have happened in Germany of late have really happened over here.

You start by imagining that all political parties but the Democratic party have been forcibly suppressed. Herbert Hoover has been driven into exile; Henry Fletcher runs what is left of the Republican party from a safe haven in Mexico City. Ogden Mills is languishing in Leavenworth; Senator Borah has been shot.

Congress is composed solely of party henchmen picked by Jim Farley; but that makes little difference, for it meets only when Mr. Roosevelt says it may, and it does exactly what he tells it to do.

There won't be any fall elections; if there were, all the voter could do would be to make a blanket indorsement of all Democratic candidates, with a flock of Tammany thugs around to beat him up if he refused.

The editor of your favorite newspaper prints an editorial suggesting that the NRA is somewhat less than perfect, and is immediately thrown in jail. You yourself happen to remark that you think General Johnson is a flat tire, and the department of justice lugs you off to a concentration camp in Georgia.

No public speaker, no editor, no magazine writer dares to suggest that Mr. Roosevelt is anything but the wisest President we have ever had.

Then, to cap things properly, imagine that the Democrats have had an internal row, and thet the President settles it by having Carter Glass, Huey Long, Bernard M. Baruch, and Al Smith executed with only a semblance of a trial—and Al Smith executed with only a semblance of a trial—

MUSKEGON, MICHIGAN CHRONICLE.

THE POOREST GAMBLE

(Contributed

Would you gamble $17,000,000 against one dollar? You wouldn't of course, no matter how good you thought your chance of winning. At those odds, no wager could possibly be worth the risk you would take.

It is very possible, however, that you take an even poorer bet than that every day—that you accept, consciously or unconsciously, life's poorest gamble.

If you are 35 years old, you will, on the average, live for 17,000,000 more minutes. To save one little minute, thousands of automobile drivers risk losing the entire 17,000,000 minutes that are coming to them. They take that risk whenever they drive excessively fast, whenever they cut in and out of traffic, whenever they pass other cars on hills or curves, whenever they are guilty of one of the many acts of carelessness that may cause an accident.

Each year in this country about 33,000 people make the 17,000,000-to-one wager with death—and lose. Hundreds of thousands of others are injured. Millions sustain needless property damage, estimated to reach a total of over a billion dollars.

Think of the odds next time you are tempted to take a chance while driving. Remember that the automobile you are operating is one of the most potentially dangerous of all weapons, both to others and yourself. Then ask yourself if that minute you might save is worth the gamble.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Foote left recently for the Feather River Lumber Company, where he has accepted a position. In letters home they state they like the country. Carl has been a faithful employee of the J. J. Jackson Grocery in Nevada City for several years.

There Are Men

There are men who match our mountains,
And we recognize them too,
In the right place, at the right time,
By the type of work they do;
There are men of faith and courage,
Men of action and of poise,
Who perform their daily duties
Without arrogance and noise.

Now the men who match our mountains
Have no flare for idle talk,
They have little time for chatter
Who with duty choose to walk;
Other men may shout and bluster
Boasting of the things they'll do,
But the men who catch our fancy
Are the men who see things through.

Watch your step, my Californians,
There is menace in the air;
There are those who seek to lead you
To the wily spoiler's lair;
Let no specious "Plan" attract you,
Let no honeyed phrase beguile,
Follow men who match your mountains
Men of worth who toil and smile.

There are men who match our mountains,
And we need them at this time;
Keeping pathways straight before us,
Fighting greed and curbing crime.
Let us fill each post of honor
With a man of strength and poise,
Whocan demonstrate his fitness
Without arrogance and noise.

COUGHLIN RULES

tion as to the granting or denying an application for a liquor license. In the absence of some express legislative enactment granting such a right there is no principal of law that will allow the Trustees of any City to say that a liquor license shall be granted to A. and the same right refused to R." (Henry vs. Trustees of San Bernardino, 107 Cal. 535; see also Reed vs. Collins, 5 C. A. 494).

Counsel for the City contends that a city or justice's court (which are the same within territorial limits) has no right to rule on a constitutional question. No support for this contention has been cited. (See Sec. 2, Art. VI, U. S. Const., and Sec. 1, Art. VI, Calif. Constitution).

While Ordinance 38 is not attacked as unconstitutional, it appears that the due process and equal protection clauses of the U. S. Constitution have been violated in the manner in which the Ordinance has been administered. A case from Sacramento County, Angelopulos vs. Bottorff, 76 C. A. 621, contains:

"The right to conduct a restaurant business is a property right, as contradistinguished from occupations or businesses permitted to be conducted or engaged in as a mere privilege, and the deprivation or interference or prevention of one's engaging in the business of conducting a restaurant is a deprivation of a property right, and such property rights cannot be taken away except by due process of law."

The defendant was never given a hearing upon her application.

And in Yick Yo vs. Hopkins, 118 U. S. 27; 30 U. S. Law Ed. 220, it was determined:

"Though a law itself be fair on its face and impartial in appearance, yet if it is applied and administered by public authority with an evil eye and an unequal hand, so as to practically make unjust and illegal discriminations between persons in similar circumstances, material to their rights, the denial of equal justice is still within the prohibition of the Constitution."

Ordinance No. 38 is a permissive ordinance and all who perform the conditions precedent to the granting of a license should receive the license and it being shown in this case that the defendant performed the only condition precedent necessary to obtain a license, viz, tender of the license fee to the City Clerk, she should have been granted the license and then this action would not have been instituted. This sort of license is simply a tax upon that intangible thing known as the right to conduct business, and if business licenses were to be arbitrarily denied in cases of this kind it would subject every business man or firm to the summary opinions or desires of city officials.

The motion for new trial is granted.

M. D. COUGHLIN,
City Judge, pro tem.

Miss Marian German has returned to the home of her mother, Mrs. E. L. German, on Nevada street, from a two weeks vacation spent in Oakland and Sacramento. She made the trip by motor, accompanied by Miss Margaret Odgers. She arrived here at 9:30 Sunday evening, and reports a most enjoyable vacation.

Andrew Carey and Joe Weilup are leaving on the 25 of this month for the Kenton mine near Alleghany, where they will be employed as mill men.

Briz Putnam left for San Francisco today by auto, going down on business pertaining to mining.

Mrs. John Williams and niece and nephew, Billie and June Laird, are spending a month's vacation in San Francisco, visiting Mrs. Williams daughter, Miss Elma Williams, a trained nurse.

Mrs. Leland Smith has had as house guests the past week, Mrs. Mazie Hurlbut and Miss Dorothy Johnson of Reedley. They left for their homes Sunday.

Miss Betty Smith is spending a week visiting with Mrs. McCain, at Forest Hill.

A group composed of Melvin Bowman, Albert Pratti, Fan Robins and Leon Ducheschi, spent last week end on a trip to the state of Nevada. They visited Leon's aunt and from there went to Reno where they spent several hours. On the return trip they visited Lake Tahoe.

George Falmbigl, late of Taits in San Francisco, has taken the position of beer dispenser in Angelo Cartoscelli's place.

There were fully 200 persons in the swimming pool Sunday afternoon besides a large crowd of spectators. Addison panes, life guard, with several assistants among whom were Ray Wilde, Dick Stevens, Theodore Tobiassen, performed a number of fancy stunts in the pool for the audience on the bank.

Joe Lopez, of Nevada City, who has large trucking interests in this section, severly sprained the muscles of his left arm and shoulder while assisting in getting out logs in the woods a few days ago, and is carrying his arm in a sling.

Miss Ruth Hutchison, bookkeeper at the S. Lee Leiter store, returned Sunday from a two week's vacation in San Francisco.

William Holm, window decorator and men's department clerk at S. Lee Leiter's store, left this morning for a two week's vacation in San Francisco.

Miss Teresa Alaria is substituting in the S. Lee Leiter store while the clerks are on their vacation.

Mrs. Edward Rose, of the Fashion Shoppe, had a beautiful selection of Fred Benioff furs and fur coats on display the latter part of last week. This San Francisco firm will display a choice assortment at the shop each month giving everyone a chance to select their furs for winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grady, of Pittsburgh, spent the week end in Nevada City visiting Mr. Grady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Robins. Mrs. Grady's mother, who is visiting them, also came up for the vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dolan returned to their home in San Francisco Sunday after a vacation spent in Nevada City with Mr. Dolan's brother, J. F. Dolan and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen left Monday morning for a vacation. They plan to visit several places of interest and will call on Mr. Allen's brother, Henry Allen, of Chico, before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Oliver and daughter, Mrs. Ted Sinnock, and husband, of Colfax, motored to Sacramento Sunday for the day.

Elmer Marriott, and mother, Mrs. J. E. Marriott, accompanied by Jack Railton, returned home Saturday from a few days visit in Tonopah, Nevada, with the Collins family, old time friends. This is the first time Mrs. Marriott has visited in Tonopah since she left there 20 years ago.

William Lackland, of North San Juan, was a business visitor in Nevada City the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kjorlie have returned from their summer vacation in their former home in the Red River Valley of Minnesota. Mr. Kjorlie reports that through the middle west the effect of the drought has been fully as drastic as reported in the press.
